JULIE BAUMEISTER

Music Producer

Music has been a part of my life for as long as I can remember. I started playing the violin at the age of four, and over the years music has become not just a skill, but the way I express myself and connect with others. Creativity, authenticity, and dedication are values I carry into every project I work on. For me, making music is not only about sound—it is about telling stories, creating emotions, and building something meaningful together with others.
